

Kane County Sheriff's Office

PRESS RELEASE

Date: 6/5/2010

Location: Rt 25 and Bond Unincorporated Batavia Township

Time: approximately 7:45pm

Incident: Serious Traffic Crash

SYNOPSIS

On 6/5/2010 at approximately 7:45pm Kane County Sheriff's Deputies were dispatched to Il Rt. 25 near Bond St. in Batavia Township for a report of a traffic crash with injuries.

The initial investigation indicates that a 2009 Chevy Cobalt was traveling south on Rt. 25 and crossed into the northbound lane of traffic and struck a 2002 GMC Yukon head on. The driver of the Cobalt, Anton Ayyad a male with a date of birth of 09/29/1985 who resides in the 1800 block of N. Farnsworth in Aurora, was transported to Mercy Center Hospital in Aurora with life threatening injuries. He was then transported to Rush University Medical Center in Chicago Hospital.

There were four occupants of the Yukon (I do not have addresses for them or the date of birth for Jimenez at this time):

- Driver: Arturo Caballero 02/23/93 transported to Mercy Center Hospital with minor injuries
- Passenger: Ivan Caballero 06/02/95 transported to Mercy Center Hospital with minor injuries
- Passenger: Luis Cuevas 03/31/92 transported to Mercy Center Hospital with minor injuries
- Passenger: Jose C. Roberto Jimenez did not need medical attention

The Sheriff's Office and the Kane County Accident Reconstruction Team are continuing the investigation into the crash. No arrests have been made and no citations have been issued. Sheriff's Investigators have not ruled out alcohol or drugs being a factor in this crash.

Rt. 25 was closed from the time of the crash until approximately 10:00pm for the investigation.

Should the medical condition of Ayyad change an additional release will be sent out. The addresses of the occupants of the Yukon will be available Monday.
