

Kane County Sheriff's Office

PRESS RELEASE

Date: 7/5/2010

Location: Silver Glenn Rd east of Verhaeghe in Unincorporated Campton Township

Time: approximately 4:00pm

Incident: Single Vehicle Crash With Injuries

SYNOPSIS

At approximately 4:00 pm Kane County Sheriff's Deputies and Officers from the Campton Hills Police Department responded to a report of a traffic crash with injuries on Silver Glenn Rd approximately ¼ of a mile east of Verhaeghe in unincorporated Campton township.

The initial investigation indicates that a 1998 Jeep Wrangler was traveling west on Silver Glenn Rd in a curve. The vehicle left the roadway and attempted to re-enter the roadway. At some point the vehicle rolled over and the driver was ejected from the vehicle.

The driver, Frank Jenkins, was transported from the scene to Delnor Hospital with life threatening injuries. There were no other vehicles involved and Jenkins was the sole occupant of the vehicle. He was not wearing a seat belt.

The crash remains under investigation and detectives have not ruled out if drugs or alcohol played a role in this crash. Due to the extent of Jenkins injuries no charges have been filed at this point.

Driver: Frank Jenkins 12/24/65 of the 6N900 Block of Verhaeghe Rd in Campton Hills.
