Fatal Car Crash

PRESS RELEASE

ST CHARLES TOWNSHIP – On February 5th, 2021, at approximately 6:15am, Kane County Sheriff's Deputies were dispatched to a vehicle crash on Randall Rd near Bolcum Rd in unincorporated St, Charles, IL.

The initial investigation indicates a Honda Accord was traveling south on Randall Rd. near the intersection of Bolcum Rd. and for an unknown reason crossed the center line and collided with a Chevrolet Equinox that was traveling north on Randall Rd. The driver of the Honda Accord, who was the sole occupant of the vehicle, was pronounced deceased at the scene. The driver of the Chevrolet Equinox who was also the sole occupant of her vehicle, was transported to Northwestern Medicine Delnor Hospital with non-life threatening injuries.

Kane County Sheriff Deputies and members of the Kane County Accident Reconstruction Team (KCART) are investigating the crash. No tickets have been issued. It is unknown if slippery road conditions played a role in this crash.

- Driver of Honda Accord - Fred Thomas 83 years of age of Huntley was pronounced deceased at the scene
- Driver of Chevrolet Equinox a 40-year-old female from Aurora was transported to Northwestern Medicine Delnor Hospital for non-life threatening injuries

Randall Rd was closed between Bolcum Rd and Silver Glenn Rd while the crash was being investigated. The roadway opened up at approximately 11:00am.
