EXPLORERS

POST 1103

Join the members of the Kane County Sheriff's Office Explorer Post Program (EPP) and receive firsthand knowledge of the responsibilities and duties of Kane County Sheriff Hain and his deputies and officers within the community. EPP is overseen by the Boy Scouts of America (BSA), where young adult males and females are welcome to join.

EPP members will participate in classroom and field instruction with experienced Police Officers, Corrections Officers, and Court Security Officers on topics of the criminal justice system within the operations of the Kane County Sheriff's Office. The Explorer's leadership and training provides an excellent foundation for careers in law enforcement as Police officers, Corrections Officers, or Court Security Officers within local Sheriff's Offices and Police Departments by helping to prepare participants to become better citizens and community members through character development.
